Written comments and suggestions from the public and affected agencies should address one or more of the following points:

(1) Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency/component, including whether the information will have practical utility;

(2) Evaluate the accuracy of the agencies/components estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

(3) Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

(4) Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses.

The proposed collection is listed below:

(1) Type of information collection. New data collection.

(2) The title of the form/collection. A Survey of Law Enforcement, Prosecutors, Social Service Providers, and Non-Profit Agencies to Determine Which Communities have a Multi-Agency Response to Missing and Exploited Children.

(3) The agency form number, if any, and the applicable component of the Department sponsoring the collection. Form: None. Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, Office of Justice Programs, United States Department of Justice.

(4) Affected public who will be asked or required to respond, as well as a brief abstract. Primary: State or Local. Other:

Not-for-profit institutions and Federal Government.

(5) An estimate of the total number of respondents and the amount of time estimated for an average respondent to respond: 750 respondents to complete a one-time 15 minute mail survey.

(6) An estimate of the total public burden (in hours) associated with the collection: 188 annual burden hours.

Public comment on this proposed information collection is strongly encouraged.

Dated: September 3, 1996.
